

healthOne Physiotherapy & Hand Clinic is looking for a dynamic hand therapist to join our team. The position will be as an independent contractor. The successful candidate can be a physiotherapist or occupational therapist and must be registered or eligible to practice in British Columbia. Preference will be given to a Certified Hand Therapist (CHT). We are willing to provide mentorship and training to a qualified candidate who wishes to pursue certification. Hours are negotiable (up to 40 hours a week available). Compensation will be competitive and based on hand therapy experience. Assistance with relocation expenses can be provided for the right candidate.

We have 2 clinics located in the beautiful, 'outdoor paradise' of the Lower Mainland area of Vancouver, BC, Canada.

If you're interested in joining our team, check out our website www.healthonephysio.ca to see our mission statement, core values and the members of our team.
